

WHITFIELD & BROWN

Case Study

Wynt View, Partington

3 storey, modern living 2-bedroom apartments

Salix Homes is a multi-award-winning social housing provider in Salford. Since 2015, they have invested £75m into their homes and communities, to meet the governments decent homes standard.

In collaboration with Whitfield & Brown, Salix Homes continue to support their customers with the latest development of 24 units in Partington on the site of the former Greyhound Public House, at the junction of Manchester Road and Manchester New Road.

The new 3 storey, modern living 2-bedroom apartments built on the 0.20 hectare site, addresses the housing demand in the area and is in a prime location close to Partington shopping Centre.

As part of the contract, Whitfield & Brown formed a new road and sewer network.
